

Howie Hawkins

FOR 4th DISTRICT COUNCILOR

Election Day November 8th

A COMMUNITY ACTIVIST FOR THE 4TH DISTRICT

Howie Hawkins has lived on South Side since moving to Syracuse in 1991. A former Marine who attended Dartmouth College, Howie has been an organizer in movements for peace, justice, labor, and the environment since 1967. He is a Teamster who unloads trucks at UPS and serves on the boards of Southside Community Coalition and the Southside Food Cooperative. His past campaigns put Living Wages and Public Power on the city's agenda. For decades, Howie has fought for much-needed reforms with the hard work and staying power required to make changes happen.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT HOWIE HAWKINS

Howie Hawkins is the most unwavering progressive I think I've met in New York State.

– Ralph Nader (Post-Standard, Oct. 4, 2004)

Hawkins is far and away the best candidate... He is a tireless activist for empowering the traditionally disenfranchised. He promises to be a councilor who "represents the community instead of the power structure."

– Post-Standard Editorial endorsing Howie Hawkins for 4th District Councilor in 2001 (Oct. 31, 2001)

FOR 4th DISTRICT COUNCILOR

Election Day November 8th

HOWIE HAWKINS HAS PRACTICAL SOLUTIONS TO THE PROBLEMS WE FACE. He has demonstrated over decades of community organizing that he will work hard as 4th District Councilor to make them happen.

A GREEN NEW DEAL

- Jobs – A Community Hiring Hall to ensure a fair share of city-funded jobs for inner city residents
- Fully-Funded Schools and City Services through progressive tax reforms that tax the rich
- Youth Jobs and Recreation Programs to cut crime and violence
- Lower Utility Rates for residents and businesses through a city-owned Public Power utility
- Community-Owned Businesses – planned, financed, and advised by a Municipal Development Bank
- Transportation Justice - Better bus service and bike and pedestrian paths
