

FOR A SYRACUSE THAT WORK FOR ALL OF US

VOTE GREEN PARTY

ELECTION DAY

TUESDAY, NOV 3

Green Party candidates are independent of the political machine running Syracuse, so you can count on us to work for YOU! We want a Syracuse where all families can live with dignity – with living wage jobs, fully funded schools and public services, and a responsive city government.

VOTE GREEN PARTY ROW D

HOWIE HAWKINS, City Auditor

The Auditor could do so much more to help our city by prioritizing audits that address the big issues we face, such as high crime and poverty, struggling schools, failing infrastructure, and fiscal distress. As a Green in a city where every elected official is a Democrat, I will have the independence to provide needed checks and balances in government. I will work hard to meet the expectations for the Auditor spelled out in the city budget and city charter, which the incumbent, Marty Masterpole, has not. Unlike the incumbent, I will hire a professionally-qualified Deputy City Auditor and civil service auditors.

RAY BLACKWELL, Commissioner of Education

As a 2007 Fowler High School graduate I know first-hand the challenges many SCSD kids are facing. The climate of our schools and the poverty in our community go hand-in-hand. As your next Commissioner of Education I will fight to create trade schools in the Syracuse district. When I graduated from Fowler High School, I had no skills or certifications. Trades give kids and their families the financial stability they need to lay the foundation for the rest of their lives and a chance to rebuild our community.

FRANK CETERA, Councilor – District 2

Frank has a proven record of economic development and community-building as a NYS Senior Small-Business Advisor, and Board President at Cooperative Federal Credit Union. Frank has also led the transformation of five unused green spaces into nourishing food gardens, volunteered with the Westside Walks snow-shoveling brigades, and secured funding for the neighborhood Adopt-A-Trash-Can program and neighborhood dog waste stations. A tireless advocate for the community, Frank Cetera is committed to policies that will end poverty and create opportunities for working families to have a dignified life – with living wage jobs, fully-funded schools and services and a responsive city government.

CALEB DUNCAN, Commissioner of Education

I graduated in 2014 from Henninger and now attend Syracuse University. I was a student in the SCSD for over a decade, and want to use my experience to give back. I served thousands of students statewide as an Executive Officer for New York DECA (a business and professional skills club). I also served as a student advocate and Code of Conduct Task Force member. I want to encourage young people to be active in the community and in their education. I believe that together we can give all young people a fully-funded, quality education.

LANCE DENNO, Councilor At-Large

In six years on the Council I was known for my independence, creative ideas, and as a fiscal watchdog that saved millions. A strong supporter of public education, I believe what we need equitable school funding from Albany – then let our teachers teach and principals govern their buildings. Let's repair our infrastructure, fund the work with Community Development Banks and train local workers for the jobs. Fix the sidewalks! Solarize the schools! Provide high-speed, low cost, locally-owned Internet service to every home and business. Let's do something about the deer problem before it gets worse. Other cities do all these things, so can Syracuse!
